

GROUP CHARTER

EXPECTATION FROM THE MEMBER AUTHORS

Optional (but regular absence is not allowed)

1. Participate in Literary Events
2. Participate in Book Fairs
3. Participate in promotional initiatives like donating books at airport Flybraries and other libraries.

Mandatory to be in the group

4. Presence on the website is mandatory
5. Pay your share of 1000 INR towards the website development cost. This is a one-time contribution.
6. Pay the annual registration cost of 2K at the time of joining. This is required to maintain a fund for meeting the various miscellaneous expenses of the group's operational expenses.
7. Please align to all the group guidelines and norms as laid out clearly in the different group guideline documents, event guidelines.

Ethical Requirements

8. No politics and gossiping or trying to indulge in activities detrimental for the group.
9. No conflict of interest should be there. Do not share certain information that can hamper the prospects and functioning of this group.
10. Do not misrepresent facts, do not hide information that is needed, do not project wrong information related to your background, etc.
11. This is a group of professionals and not a casual meeting ground. Though intrinsically it is an informal group, but the objectives are very clear. We are working for a few causes and are activities are public facing. It is a B2C kind of space.

The charter and guidelines will keep evolving as and when we figure out something that is required to keep the group aligned to the goal of the group.

Deviation from the above charter will invoke expulsion from the group.